UK Data Protection legislation is set out in the Data Protection Act 2018 and the GDPR.

This legislation states that we are allowed to use and share personal information, only where we have a proper and lawful reason for doing so.

Our lawful bases for processing personal information for Finance are:

- Public Task – Processing is necessary for the school to undertake its statutory responsibilities as a public body and is exercising official authority which is laid down by law. This informs RCT's own financial regulations, namely the Financial Procedure Rules and the Scheme for Financing Schools
- Legitimate interests - processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the controller or by a third party except where such interests are overridden by the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject. In this case, relying on legitimate interest as a lawful basis for processing results in extra responsibility for ensuring peoples' rights and freedoms are fully considered and protected.

We hold personal data in line with the guidance set out in the Retention Schedule, contained within the IRMS Toolkit for Schools.

Following expiry of the retention period, information will be destroyed securely and permanently.
