Update from RCT Education

Good afternoon,

Following the announcement from Kirsty Williams this afternoon, the Director of Education for RCT has published a statement which you will find below. I fully understand that you may have many questions and concerns about your children returning to school and as soon as further guidance has been issued and considered, I will inform you of the plans that have been made.

Best wishes and stay safe,

Lisa Davies
Head teacher

Today, the Welsh Government announced that pupils will have the opportunity to return to school from 29th June for 4 weeks before the summer holidays. Pupils will be taught in small groups but will not be in school every day. Only a third of the pupils will be in school at any one time. This is the opportunity for pupils to see their teachers, reflect and catch up on their learning and prepare for September. Every child will be different and schools will allow for individual family circumstances and parental choice as to whether children attend before the summer.

Further information will be shared with all parents and carers over the coming weeks as we receive the guidance from Welsh Government.
